

BFSNA General Meeting Minutes, July 10, 2007

The meeting was called to order by Andrew Parthum at 7:10 p.m.

Treasurer's Report -- Same as last month except $37.00 check written for our mail box.

Secretary's Report -- The minutes of the June meeting were accepted.

Father Gilday, E. Brookline, and E. Newton Streets will be included in the city's street cleaning program soon.

The Festival Betances parade will be on Friday evening, July 20. Anyone who wishes to take part is welcome.

The Pine Street Inn dinner is on August 13. Anyone wishing to volunteer should check with Andrew.

The Union Park association holds neighborhood walks. The next one is July 23. More information is available at <http://www.upna.org/p8.html>.

There are important Landmark meetings coming up regarding the Nuestra Building at Washington & E. Newton and the Health Center at 1597 Washington. It is important that we stay abreast of their proposed changes and voice our concerns.

The book scholarship winners, Cristina Santos and Gladys Fashote were introduced to the members. They each introduced themselves—Cristina spoke extemporaneously and Gladys read an essay that she wrote. Everyone agreed that these are young women that we are proud to have as neighbors.

A reception with refreshments followed.
